Privacy Information

The Office of the Education Ombudsman respects your privacy and that of your student. While working with the Ombudsman you both may find it necessary to involve school officials in the problem-solving process.

If you both agree that it would help if the Ombudsman contacts school and/or school district, we will need your permission in writing before this happens. You can give the Ombudsman your permission by filling out the bottom of this form.

Permission to Disclose Identity

Your signature below allows the Ombudsman and school/district staff to use your name, your student's name and date of birth, and other relevant information, when discussing the details of your student's situation.

(Please check those that apply)
