

STATE OF WASHINGTON
OFFICE OF GOVERNOR JAY INSLEE

January 13, 2022

Notice of Judicial Vacancy Clark County Superior Court

On January 13, 2022, Hon. Scott A. Collier announced his resignation from the bench effective June 30, 2022. Governor Jay Inslee is now seeking interested and qualified members of the Washington State Bar Association to submit applications to fill Judge Collier's position in the Clark County Superior Court. The Governor's application for judicial appointment, the Uniform Judicial Evaluation Questionnaire, is accepted by the Clark County Bar Association and several minority bar associations for evaluation purposes. It can be downloaded at: <http://www.governor.wa.gov/office-governor/official-actions/judicial-appointments-0>

To be considered for this vacancy, applicants are strongly encouraged to promptly submit complete applications, along with a short resume and the Waiver and Authorization to Release Information, and schedule judicial evaluations with the judicial district bar association and the statewide minority bar associations. All applications must be completed and submitted to the Governor's Office by February 28, 2022, with all judicial evaluation ratings submitted to the Governor's Office of General Counsel as soon as possible. All candidates who have applied for appointment to Clark County Superior Court in the last year do not need to submit a new application. Please notify the General Counsel of your continued interest and your application will be reconsidered for this vacancy. A letter of interest and supplemental materials will be accepted.

Completed applications should be mailed to the address below:
