

Public Comment at SRKW Task Force Meeting

October 17 & 18, Tacoma WA

- Public comment will be heard from 5-8 pm on Wednesday, Oct. 17. No public comment will be heard on Thursday, Oct. 18.
- People may sign up to speak until 6 pm.
- People who wish to speak will be asked to sign in based on their place of residence. They will be asked to record their name on a sign-in sheet and on a note card. The sign-in sheets and note cards will be color coded to signify the individual's place of residence as follows:
 - ✓ Eastern WA (Adams, Asotin, Benton, Chelan, Columbia, Douglas, Ferry, Franklin, Garfield, Grant, Kittitas, Klickitat, Lincoln, Okanogan, Pend Oreille, Skamania, Spokane, Stevens, Walla Walla, Whitman, Yakima)
 - ✓ Southwest WA and Coast (Clark, Cowlitz, Lewis, Wahkiakum, Pacific, Grays Harbor)
 - ✓ Urban Puget Sound (Thurston, Pierce, King, Snohomish)
 - ✓ Other Puget Sound (Mason, Kitsap, Clallam, Jefferson, Island, San Juan, Skagit, Whatcom)
 - ✓ Other states/countries
- When the public comment period begins:
 - Tribal leaders/elders will be recognized first.
 - Elected officials will be recognized next.
 - Names of members of the general public will then be randomly drawn, rotating between the areas of the state listed above. Names will be drawn from the other state/other country region at the co-chairs' discretion.
- Each speaker will be limited to 2 minutes. No one may grant their time to another speaker.
- There will be lights indicating when your time is running out, and you are expected to stop when the red light indicates your time is done.
- Clapping is discouraged because it takes away time from speakers. However, observers may show their support by raising/waving their hands silently, or by standing.
- If you are not called to speak, you may submit written comments in the public comment box or on the Task Force website:
