(This salary includes the general wage increase effective January 1, 2019.)

POSITION DESCRIPTION AND DUTIES

The Office of the Governor is responsible for the overall administration of the affairs of the state of Washington as outlined in the Washington Constitution and Statutes. The Governor's Office has a team of approximately 50 individuals who help to fulfill those duties. Leading the office are eight members of the Governor Inslee's Executive Team, which is led by the Chief of Staff.

All Washington state government employees must comply with state law in the proper and legal management of public records. Per Governor's Policy 1.09 and RCW 40.14.010, public records are any/all records, regardless of physical form or characteristics, made by or received by any state agency in connection with the transaction of public business.

This position serves as the agency's Public Disclosure and Records Officer. The position assists and supports the Deputy General Counsel with all aspects of public disclosure and records management in the Governor's Office, as well as Results Washington, Governor's Office for Regulatory Innovation and Assistance and occasionally the Office of the Family and Children's Ombuds. The position ensures compliance with state law in the proper and legal management of public records, and serves as the point of contact for records management questions. Responsibilities of the position include:

- Review requests for public disclosure, and apply knowledge of state laws and Governor’s Policy 1.09 - Records Management. Elevate requests of a complex or sensitive nature to the Deputy General Counsel as necessary.
- Respond to public disclosure requests within five business days, and meet self-imposed deadlines to provide records or follow up with requesters.
- When needed, proactively clarify with requestors to ensure they receive the records they are looking for and that employees are not retrieving unnecessary documents.
- Coordinate with staff to gather records responsive to requests.
- Use appropriate technology and thoughtful search terms to retrieve email records from the agency’s email archive using Discovery Accelerator.
- Examine documents carefully and thoroughly to determine responsiveness and appropriate exemptions. Mark records for redaction and create exemption logs when necessary.
- Maintain a complete, accurate record of all public disclosure requests including the original request, all communications regarding it, response dates, and any records provided or withheld.
- Respond to inquiries from agency staff regarding public disclosure and records management processes and policy. Provide technical assistance, and participate in planning and training. Create/update training materials as needed.
- Serve as the agency liaison to the Secretary of State Division of Archives and Records Management, the State Records Committee, the statewide Records Officer Forum, and other associated internal and external workgroups and projects. Foster ongoing communication with these entities.
- Provide the assessment and inventory of agency records. Coordinate and/or oversee the agency’s biennial records inventory and the disposition of agency records.
- Provide transmittal, migration, reformatting and disposition of agency records to the State Records Center or State Archives to ensure compliance with state law.
- Maintain and update the Records Center Database as needed.
- Approve final disposition of records stored at the State Records Center.
- With assistance from Washington Technology Solutions, transfer all relevant, nonstructured data to Digital Archives via encrypted hard drives.
- Assist the Deputy General Counsel with special projects as assigned.
