General Meeting Information:

- Sign up to speak: Please sign up to have the opportunity to make a comment. Comment registration cards will be available throughout the meeting. The facilitator will randomly select individuals who filled out a comment registration card to speak.
- Speakers may choose to have the facilitator read your comments out loud: If you prefer, you can write out your comment, provide it to the facilitator when it's your turn, and the facilitator will read it (for up to 2 minutes).
- The facilitator may interact with speakers to clarify: The facilitator may ask a clarifying question or remind the speaker about the time left to speak.
- Meeting to be adjourned at 9:20 p.m.: The meeting will be adjourned as close to 9:20 p.m. as possible. Additional comments can be sent to the Workgroup via email after the meeting is adjourned.

Ground Rules for a Productive Meeting:

- Share the air time: Each person that chooses to provide a comment will have up to 2 minutes to speak. Each person may only speak once.
- Time cannot be delegated to others: As noted above, each person will have only 2 minutes to speak in order to give time to everyone that wishes to speak.
- When speaking, please:
 - Be courteous and respectful
 - Avoid personal attacks or accusations
 - Refrain from grandstanding
 - Do not interrupt when others are speaking
- Direct comments to the Workgroup: Please direct your comments to the Workgroup members or the facilitator, not to other participants at the meeting.
- Minimize showing signs of support for specific comments: This is not a session to show group preferences; rather it is intended to provide the Workgroup with ideas the public has on this topic.
