The Governor's Leadership Academy is a unique internship program for currently enrolled college and graduate students to gain a hands-on learning experience in the Governor's office.

The Inslee Administration is looking for innovative, forward-thinking individuals who are committed to public service and who want to develop their leadership and public policy skills in a dynamic environment.

Internship Opportunities - Interns may be placed with the following departments within the Governor’s Office:

Boards and Commissions Boards and commissions are designed to give citizens a voice in their government and provide a means of influencing decisions that shape the quality of life for the residents of our state. Washington State has 200+ boards and commissions to which Gov. Inslee appoints citizen members. Interns will assist the Director of Boards and Commissions in the fulfillment of office responsibilities including, but not limited to: soliciting, receiving, organizing, processing and responding to applications, assisting in outreach to board and commission members and researching board functions.

Communications
The Communications office works with the media to keep Washingtonians up to date on what's happening in Gov. Inslee's office. An intern in the Communications office will assist with creating social media content, drafting press releases and speeches, assisting with media events, media tracking and other related duties as assigned.

Constituent Services
The Constituent Services division receives and processes 80,000 to 100,000 contacts each year. Interns will assist with research, data entry, constituent responses, agency referrals and ceremonial letters from the Governor and other duties as assigned. Constituent Services interns are expected to have a high level of interpersonal, writing and research skills.

Office of General Counsel
The Governor's General Counsel provides a variety of legal advice to the Governor and the Governor's staff, including advice on judicial appointments; clemency petitions; executive orders; legislation; and ethics. Interns and externs will assist with legal research, writing and other duties as assigned. Internships in this department are intended for law students.

International Relations and Protocol
The Governor's office meets and hosts numerous international dignitaries every year, and it also participates in periodic international trade missions. Interns who work with the International Relations Director will assist with preparing briefings, correspondence, protocol, event coordination and other duties as assigned.

Washington, DC Office
Interns in the Washington, DC office will have a unique opportunity to assist the Director of the Washington, DC Office with projects related to the Governor's federal agenda and will promote Washington interests in the nation's capital. Interns will assist with research, tracking developments in Congress and federal agencies, preparing briefing memos, scheduling and other duties as assigned.
